WILDERNESS CAMP 2026

NEWSLETTER 2

Dear Young People,

We hope you've had a refreshing holiday break and are ready to get back into your study of Malachi! Please take a moment to read this Newsletter as it includes some important updates we don't want you to miss.

PREP WORKSHOP 2

Date: Thursday 29 January

Time: 7.30pm ACDT

Subject: The Work of Elijah

Facilitator: Bro Jamin Hunter

Venue: Woodville Hall

Zoom: This will be live streamed for those interstate/overseas. A Zoom link will be sent before the event.

In our second workshop we will be looking at the future work of Elijah. This is a fascinating topic that links together not just Malachi but many different parts of scripture, and even gives us a helpful framework for understanding the events subsequent to Christ's return. Whether you attend in-person or on Zoom, this promises to be a challenging yet rewarding session with a few different workshop exercises to get your minds working.

Note: please bring your copy of the Wilderness Camp notes to the workshop as they may contain useful information.

ONLINE STUDY SESSION 2

Our second study session with Uncle Tony is coming up soon for all who are keen, so please save the date! If you couldn't be at the last session, we had a great time discussing some study tips and techniques, and a summary has been placed on the Study Resources page.

Date: Thursday 12 February

Time: 7.30pm ACDT

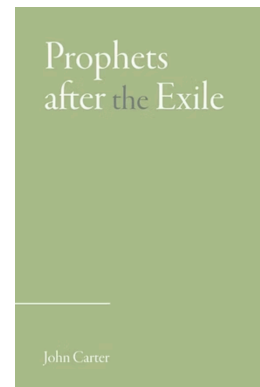

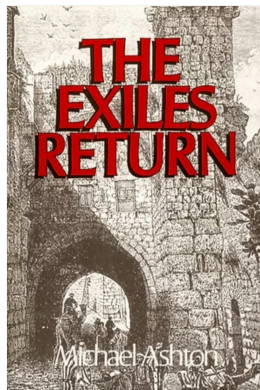

Subject: How to make my study come alive

A zoom link will be sent before the event.
